

Understanding English, communication and language Use story language Writing captions Puppet shows Small world Role Play	Topic name: Traditional Tales	Scientific and technological understanding Changes when cooking Changes in the woods (introduce programmable toys)
Mathematical understanding Shoe sizes Hansel and Gretel are learning their numbers in the woods.	Hub of the topic: Stories, dressing up, Traditional home corner: The Magic Porridge Pot, The Elves and the Shoe-Maker, Jack and the Beanstalk, Hansel and Gretel	Understanding physical development, health and well being: Trying new healthy foods
Historical, geographical and social understanding How homes/ clothes/ lifestyles were different in the past - explored in the Old Fashioned Cottage Role Play Area	Outcomes and success criteria Children use story language when telling/ acting out stories.	Understanding the Arts Make shoes Make beanstalks